 - May be authorized by the plate umpire for more throws in case of injury or inclement weather.
 - Both A & C.
69. With runners on first and third, the pitcher legally feints a pick-off attempt to third base and then legally turns and successfully picks off the runner at first base.
- This is a legal move and the out will stand.
 - The third to first move is illegal and a balk will be declared.
70. An improper batter is discovered at bat with a count of 1-2.
- Only the defense can appeal or discover the infraction.
 - The improper batter shall be declared out and the proper batter will come to bat.
 - The proper batter will replace the improper batter with the 1-2 count.
 - The improper batter shall be declared out and restricted to the bench.
71. Only the defensive team may appeal batting out of order after the batter has completed his time at bat.
- True.
 - False.
72. When the defense successfully appeals batting out of order:
- The proper batter is declared out.
 - Any outs made on the play stand.
 - An advance by a runner from a wild pitch, while the improper batter is at bat, is legal.
 - A, B, & C
73. When the proper batter is declared out because he has failed to bat in turn, the next batter shall be:
- The batter who batted improperly.
 - The proper batter who should have batted.
 - The batter whose name follows the proper batter thus called out.
 - The batter the opposing team chooses.
74. The batting order is Armstrong, Boyd, Campbell, Davis. Boyd is at bat when Armstrong is caught stealing for the third out. When the team returns to offense in the next inning, the first batter shall be:
- Armstrong.
 - Boyd.
 - Campbell.
 - Davis.
75. When an improper batter's actions are legalized, the batting order picks up with:
- The proper batter who should have batted.
 - The batter whose name follows the legalized improper batter.
 - The batter whose name follows the proper batter who should have batted.
 - The batter the opposing team chooses.
76. A batter may leave the batter's box with no penalty when:
- The pitcher attempts a pickoff.
 - Time is granted to either team.
 - The catcher leaves the catcher's box to give defensive signals.
 - All of the above.
77. The batter hits a stand-up double with his foot on the inside line of the batter's box and also on home plate.
- The hit stands; the batter stays on second base.
 - The batter returns to bat with his previous count.
 - The batter is declared out.
 - The batter is ejected.

78. The batter is declared out when:
- A. He intentionally deflects a foul ball that has a chance of becoming fair.
 - B. He hits the ball foul while either foot or knee is touching the ground completely outside the lines of the batter's box.
 - C. He disconcerts the pitcher by stepping from the box on one side of home plate to the box on the other side of home plate while the pitcher is in position ready to pitch.
 - D. All of the above.
79. With a count of 3-2, the batter permits a pitch outside the strike zone to touch him.
- A. The batter is out.
 - B. The batter is awarded first base.
 - C. The batter stays at bat with a full count.
 - D. The batter is replaced by the next batter who assumes his count.
80. With the bases empty, the batter's follow-through causes his bat to contact the catcher, thereby dislodging the baseball from the catcher's hand.
- A. The batter has committed interference and is called out.
 - B. The batter has committed interference and is ejected.
 - C. Since there was no possible play for the catcher, there is no interference. Play continues.
 - D. A warning shall be issued to the batter and if the incident happens again, both he and his coach are restricted to the dugout.
81. With one out and the runner from third attempting to steal home, the batter interferes with the catcher.
- A. The runner is out.
 - B. The batter is out.
 - C. Both the runner and the batter are out.
 - D. The result of the play will stand.
82. With the runner from first attempting to steal second base, the batter swings and misses the pitch for strike two. His follow-through contacts the catcher and causes him to drop the ball on his attempted throw.
- A. The batter is declared out and the runner is returned to first.
 - B. The runner is declared out and the batter continues his at-bat.
 - C. Both the batter and the runner are declared out.
 - D. Since there was no intent to interfere, time is called and the runner is returned to first base. The batter continues his at-bat with a warning.
83. With the runner from third attempting to steal home, the batter swings and misses and his follow-through contacts the catcher, causing him to drop the ball.
- A. This is backswing interference on the batter.
 - B. With one out, the runner from third is out.
 - C. With two outs, the batter is out.
 - D. A, B, and C
84. The penalty for the use of an illegal bat that is discovered before the next pitch is:
- A. The batter is out.
 - B. Other runners return to the base occupied at the time of the pitch.
 - C. The defense has the option of taking the penalty or the result of the play.
 - D. All of the above.
85. A batter is declared out when:
- A. The third-base coach interferes with the third baseman attempting to field a foul fly ball.
 - B. He enters the batter's box with an illegal bat.
 - C. An attempted bunt on the third strike is foul.

- A. True.
 - B. False.
87. Catcher's obstruction is ignored:
- A. It is never ignored and the penalty must be enforced.
 - B. The penalty is ignored if the batter-runner reaches first base and all other runners advance at least one base.
88. If the penalty for catcher's obstruction on a batter is enforced:
- A. The batter shall be awarded first base.
 - B. Runners attempting to advance shall be awarded the base attempted.
 - C. Runners not attempting to advance will be returned to the base occupied at the time of pitch, unless forced to advance because of the batter's award of first base.
 - D. All of the above.
89. A runner who misses a base while advancing may not return to touch it after a following runner has scored.
- A. True.
 - B. False.

90. A dead-ball appeal may be made by:
- A. A coach.
 - B. A defensive player with or without the ball.
 - C. A dead-ball appeal is not possible by rule.
 - D. Both A & B.
91. If a runner misses a base and is on or beyond a succeeding base when the ball becomes dead:
- A. He may legally return to touch the missed base provided he does so immediately.
 - B. The defense must wait until the ball is made live to appeal.
 - C. He cannot legally return to the missed base and is subject to being declared out upon proper appeal.
 - D. He will be declared out immediately by the umpire.
92. If a successful appeal of a runner leaving a base too soon is the third out of the inning:
- A. No runs score as this is considered to be a force play.
 - B. All runs that score in advance of the appealed runner and scored prior to the appeal will count.
93. An appeal by the defense on the last play of the game must be made while an umpire is still on the field of play.
- A. True.
 - B. False.
94. Attempting to return to first base when a deep fly ball was caught, the runner failed to touch second base. The throw from the outfield, attempting to double the returning runner at first base, sails into the dugout.
- A. For missing second base on the return, the runner cannot now legally touch second base since he was standing on first base when the ball became dead.
 - B. Because the runner failed to touch second base on his return, he will not be awarded third base due to the overthrow into the dugout.
 - C. If the runner correctly touches second base as he is advancing to third base on the award, his touching second base corrected his previous infraction of missing the base while returning.
 - D. The umpire should eject the runner for making a travesty of the game by missing the base as he returned.
95. A batter-runner who overslides first base loses his ability to return without the possibility of being put out.
- A. True.
 - B. False.
96. If two runners are on the same base at the same time in a non-force situation, and both are tagged:
- A. Both runners are out.
 - B. Neither runner is out.
